REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 4.—"Hoodoo" Waddell's feet slipped off the earth in the ninth inning of the game with St. Louis at the West Side grounds this afternoon, and before he could drag them back again, the Cardinals had put the game in a safe with a combination that Chicago could not work.

"Hoodoo" Waddell, who has been the cause of so much comment and speculation, was the hero of the game. He hit a home run in the ninth inning, which gave the Cardinals the lead, and he was the only player who hit a home run in the game.

The Cardinals were not entitled to either of the first two runs. The first run was scored by a sacrifice hit by Waddell, and the second run was scored by a sacrifice hit by Waddell.
